- CRAFT/PROFESSION

Anne-Marie is the woman who works under the brand "Les Fleurs à Mimi." She specializes in crafting unique floral arrangements using primarily fabrics imported from Japan or Indonesia. With meticulous attention to detail, she creates fabric flowers, shaping each petal by hand and carefully assembling them into bouquets, centerpieces, and other elegant decorations. Her work combines the delicacy of flowers with the durability of fabric, offering floral creations that stand the test of time.

- BACKGROUND

Anne-Marie's journey is rich and diverse, deeply rooted in a long tradition of craftsmanship dating back to the late 1970s. She began her career as a volunteer librarian before becoming an arts and crafts instructor for children at the Boutiques de l'Œuvre des Artistes in Paris. Later, she worked in schools, teaching and sharing her love for creative arts. After retiring, she decided to fully dedicate herself to her passion for fabric floral art, developing "Les Fleurs à Mimi," a business that combines the skills she has acquired over the years with a unique artistic approach.

- INSPIRATIONS AND ART/DESIGN

Anne-Marie's inspiration comes from local floral traditions and her desire to create works that combine beauty and longevity. Each flower she crafts from fabric is a representation of nature, but with a touch of durability that makes it a timeless work of art. The fabrics she uses, often imported from Asia, allow her to play with various textures, patterns, and colors. Anne-Marie specializes in creating permanent bouquets, wedding decorations, and custom arrangements for various occasions. Her creations, always unique, are designed to bring a lasting floral touch to any space or event, blending elegance with innovation.
