

MAGIC CRYSTALS

- CRAFT/PROFESSION

Élodie is the creative force behind "Magic Crystals," a brand specializing in crochet artistry. Her expertise lies in crafting various items, ranging from clothing and accessories to decorative pieces and children's toys. With a deep understanding of different yarns and materials—like cotton, wool, and acrylic—Élodie uses her crochet hook to transform these raw materials into beautiful, functional, and imaginative creations.

- BACKGROUND

Élodie's journey into the world of crochet began at the young age of 22, when she taught herself the craft. What started as a hobby has grown into a passion and eventually evolved into a full-fledged profession. Over the years, she has honed her skills through practice and experimentation, developing a unique style that blends traditional techniques with her own creative flair. Today, Élodie is known for her ability to create intricate patterns and designs, making each piece a testament to her dedication and love for the art of crochet.

- INSPIRATIONS AND ART/DESIGN

Élodie's inspiration comes from the endless possibilities offered by the materials she uses. She primarily works with cotton yarn, which allows her to create pieces that are both durable and soft. Her designs are often inspired by the natural world and the textures and colors she encounters in her everyday life. For Élodie, each crochet project is a complete invention, starting with the selection of materials and ending with a finished product that is as beautiful as it is functional. Her creations are versatile, able to fit into any color scheme and aesthetic, making them perfect for a wide range of uses and spaces.
